Privacy Notice - Publishing pupils' coursework

Our schools may wish to celebrate the achievements of pupils and promote the school through publishing of coursework. When this is the case, they will seek the consent of the parent/carer, or where pupils are aged 12 or above, from the pupil themselves. As schools are relying on your consent you can withdraw consent at any time by contacting the school. Every effort will be made to delete the coursework, but please note that where consent has been provided for the publication of images, the school may not be able to locate and delete the coursework on request, although reasonable steps will be taken to do so.

Where consent has been provided for the use of coursework, and the pupil has left the school, our schools will rely on legitimate interests as the legal basis when retaining digital images for archiving purposes. If you would like a copy of the Legitimate Interest Assessment we have completed for this activity, please contact the schools Data Protection Lead.

The personal information likely to be used in this activity is:

- Student Name
- School Year
- Coursework

The school is the Data Controller for this information. The information might be shared with:

- Other students
- Social Media applications
- School website providers

No coursework is routinely available outside of the UK. However, where it is used on social media, in publications, or on schools websites we cannot restrict the access to the UK.

For information about your rights in relation to this use of your personal information please see each schools overarching privacy notice:
